Clinical Issues In Family Planning

May 13, 2009

Syracuse, NY

CLINICAL ISSUES IN FAMILY PLANNING

This one day clinical conference intends to provide both the seasoned and new family planning clinician with current, evidenced based, practice oriented information. Our faculty are nationally recognized clinical leaders who expertly weave medical evidence with their own practical experience working in Title X settings.

As a result of this conference participants will be able to:

- Develop advanced skills for contraceptive management in medically complex clients
- Discuss innovative solutions to performing the challenging pelvic exam
- Evaluate management strategies for abnormal menses
- Identify clinical challenges in providing male services in the family planning setting
